HAMILTON TOWNSHIP SHOULD WAKE UP

Several from Paw Paw attended an enthusiastic "Dixie Highway" meeting in Decatur last Monday evening. One of the officials of the Dixie Highway association was the principal speaker. Decatur and Paw Paw are enthusiastic over the prospect and are willing to comply with the conditions and build the road through the respective townships. It is said, however, that Hamilton township does not enthruse very much over the matter. It is regretted that a single township along the proposed line should hesitate about accepting the conditions. The Lake Shore people are pulling hard for the road, and while it is expected that it will pass through Dowagiac, Decatur, Paw Paw and Kalamazoo, there is nothing certain about it yet.

Progressing Slowly.

Paving on South Kalamazoo street is progressing slowly. Contractor Neale has been handicapped somewhat on account of lack of material. Several days were lost on this account.

Hay Crop is Light.

Haying is about over and harvest well on the way. This has not been a good year for hay and the crop is generally light. The cold backward spring was not conducive to a good growth of grass.

ADJUDGED INSANE, TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Elmer Reading of Arlington township was adjudged insane in Judge Killefer's court on Monday of this week and taken to the State Hospital in Kalamazoo. He is a man 41 years of age and single. The insanity followed a long illness, and it is hoped that he may recover. He was brought to Paw Paw on Monday by Sheriff Beattie and Under sheriff Lang and taken to Kalamazoo by them Tuesday morning.

At Snow Drift Inn.

The Misses Lettie Tubbs, Margaret and Laura Cole, Frieda Snow and Mildred Shepard have been for the past week in full possession of the new cottage recently erected by C. F. Snow at Three Mile lake. Miss Ione Rhynolds is there to act in the dignified capacity of chaperon, and it is to her that the Inn is indebted for its classy new name, which seems very appropriate in more ways than one. This jolly crowd will break camp Sunday and return to the every day sort of living.

The Sanitary Feather Mattress Co. have located here and make a specialty of feather mats. Your featherbed made into an up to date mattress, feather pillows cleaned by new process and all kinds of feather renovating done. Leave or phone orders to Hotel Clifton. Watch for display ad next week. adv

SHIPPED OUT 16 CARS OF CHERRIES

While the strawberry crop this year was a partial failure and the prospects are not very good for a grape crop, no one can deny but that it has been a bumper year for cherries. The largest crop of cherries in this locality for many years has already been harvested and some varieties are yet on the trees. There has been up to this time 16 car loads of cherries shipped out of Paw Paw. The price has been fair, most of the common varieties selling in Chicago for $1.00 to $1.25, while some of the choice varieties have brought a much higher price.

ENTERTAINS AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. B. E. Cline entertained a few little folks Tuesday p. m. in honor of her son's first birthday. The children present were LeRoy Stansell Cline, Genevieve and Catherine Douglas, Marion and Ada Bierce, Edgar Adriance Howe, Ralph and Alice Wheaton and their little cousin Vaughan Sawyer Pierce of Hancock, Mich. The party was a decided success as there failed to be a dull moment and the happiest guest was Auntie Wells who lays professional claim to six of the little ones. The hostess served dainty refreshments assisted by Mrs. J. B. Coyton.

REAL MOVIE FILM STAGED AT HOME

Local Characters are Principals of Thrilling Drama to be Shown Here.

Charley Chaplin will undoubtedly turn green with envy when he hears about it; Mary Pickford is liable to throw seventeen spasms; Pearl White will probably drown her sorrow in the flowing bowl; John Bunny will turn over in his grave. Paw Paw has staged a regular bona fide, honest-to-goodness "movie". One thousand feet of celluloid was reeled off on Monday and Tuesday and when its duty was done it held the living, moving countenances of our beautiful village's fairest Thespians. From the sadly wistful heroine to the heartless villain, every character in a motion picture thriller was represented, Indians in full regalia, a thrilling kidnapping scene, (in which the heroine nearly lost consciousness) burning of barns, a fighting sheriff—leave it to Glad—the escape in a canoe, hair raising rescue—all those things that go to make up a modern feature were carefully photographed.

The scenario was written by Mrs. Dana P. Smith, who has had her work in this line accepted and produced by several of the big film companies. The production is sponsored by George Pierce of the Colonial Theater and the cast is as follows:

Heroine.....Marian Pierce Allen
Hero.....Ray E. Curtiss
Father.....M. L. Barber
Mother.....Mrs. Idelle Longwell
Sheriff.....Gladstone Beattie
Villains.....Earl Hess, Dale C. Harrison
Teacher.....Mabel Barber
Indians, villagers, school children, etc.

The camera work was under the direction of a Selig Polyscope Co. operator and the picture was forwarded to the company's developing plant Tuesday night. Splendid views, showing the lake as a background were taken.

In speaking to a Northern reporter Mr. Marvin, the director, said: "Although I have produced several pictures of a similar scope throughout the state I can truthfully say that the acting in this picture is the best, for amateurs of course, I have thus far seen. The settings here were beautiful and the scenario itself far above the average."

We understand the picture will be run at the Colonial three nights next week.

NEW PRISONERS AT THE COUNTY JAIL

Five "transients" from South Haven are sojourning at the county jail for a couple of weeks. Three were brought to the county seat on Tuesday by Deputy Cone and two arrived Wednesday. All were convicted before a South Haven justice on a drunk and disorderly charge.

The Spoilers.

Notwithstanding the fact that "The Spoilers" had been played here before to crowded houses, it certainly met with a warm reception on its return at the Idle Hour Tuesday evening. If anything the crowd was larger than before. The house was packed for two shows. It was growing so late after the first show that a great many gave up waiting and returned to their homes very much disappointed in not being able to gain admittance.

The Sherrod Barber Shop.

The Frank Sherrod barber shop in the Dyckman house block on Main street is better prepared than ever to satisfactorily serve its increasing patronage. It has three chairs with barbers who are experts and who are always to be found at the shop ready for business. The shop is all "done" in white, is kept clean and neat and is as sanitary as it is possible to make it. No dirty towels, shirt sleeves or coats—everything spotlessly clean. Patrons receive courteous treatment and the best attention it is possible for competent tonsorial artists to give them. If you are not a customer of this shop, try it. Advertisement.

May Send Larger Parcels

The Post Office department has increased the maximum size of parcels that may be accepted for mailing from 72 to 84 inches. Receipts for parcels will also be furnished on the payment of one cent for stamp. The new order goes into effect September 1.

Boosting for Chautauqua

The Commercial club held an enthusiastic Chautauqua meeting last Tuesday evening. Henry Shaefer is again local manager, which insures careful attention to every detail. The chautauqua this year promises to be the most successful ever held here.
